DIRECTOR'S PAGE

Greetings from PHSSL's home office at Bloomsburg University. I hope your summer was well and you are back and looking forward to another productive year. Schools are open for the 2018-2019 year and that means it's time to plan for drama, speech, and debate activities.

Here is the first issue of the Communicator for 2018-2019. Please read it carefully and keep it for future reference. This particular issue has all materials needed to participate in drama activities for the first semester. If you have not been involved with the drama events in the past, please consider doing so. It is a lot of fun and reaps many rewards. Please be aware there are some changes this year to Drama.

At the June meeting of the Executive Board many actions were adopted that affect PHSSL's operation. Let me provide you with "headlines." Changes in the Bylaws or Handbooks will be updated on the on-line version and available as soon as possible for your convenience. If you do not have access to the internet, please feel free to request paper copies from the State Office.

1. Election results for the four annual Executive Board position are as follows: Chris Berdnik, Bob Hall, Nathan Lawver, and Mike Shaffer. Also, I want to thank all those individuals who showed interest in becoming a Board member by having their names placed on the ballot.
2. Paypal will now be accepted for Membership fees as well as paying for tournament fees & tournament meals. Email Jodi if you wish to use this method. (jfettero@bloomu.edu)
3. We will be implementing e-Balloting for all events this year.
4. Newsbroadcasting format has been changed to the following: Round 1 - International News, Round 2 - Lighter side, Quarters - Site, Semi's - Domestic, and Finals - Choice of script previously used. Also, a motion was passed to make sure all participants are seated during competition. The online Handbook will be updated.
5. Presiding Officer awards, the All State Cast Award, and the District award are all eliminated.
6. Singing is allowed in Duo up to 30 seconds as long as it is original. This will be added to the ByLaws.

7. Meals for the State Tournament are going to be ordered the same as last year, through the State Secretary. All orders will need to be placed and paid for by a certain date. Payments will be accepted by check, cash, or PayPal. Tickets for meals will be picked up at the registration table at check in.
8. After a survey of the new "No Blended Poetry" Policy, the board has reviewed the results. Blended poetry will now be allowed with clear distinctions being made as to which poem is being performed. The rules are similar to the NCFL. The ByLaws will be changed to reflect this. Thank you to everyone who participated in the survey.
9. Changes have been made to the Drama Festivals. Please see Page # for more information on the updates.
10. Please be sure to forward information to the State Office regarding any PHSSL competition you have scheduled, so we can place it on the Events Calendar.
11. Hall of Fame Coordinators: Mr. David Long Please send your nominations to him no later than December 1.

As I said earlier, the above reflects PHSSL "headlines." The minutes of the meeting detail the actions and discussions about the above, as well as other information for you to be aware of. You will find a copy of the Minutes in the September Communicator. If I can help you in any way during the year, please let me know, and we will do whatever we can to help you. Please visit PHSSL's web site at www.phssl.org.

Warm Regards,
Neil

Dr. Harry C. "Neil" Strine IV, Executive
Director, Pennsylvania High School Speech
League

- Regional Drama Festival Report
- State Drama Festival Registration and Tech Form
- Drama Festival Judge's Evaluation Form
- State Drama Festival Summary of Judging Results

Article B18 – Drama

Section B18.1a

Each school may have two entries in the Regional Drama Festivals. In the case of a single gender school, arrangements may be made with the Regional Drama Coordinator of the event.

Section B18.1b

In cases of multiple entries, each entry must be a different piece and students cannot be casted in more than one entry.

Section B18.1c

Schools will be charged separately for each entry in the Regional and State competition.

Section B18.2

Each region shall qualify two plays to the State Drama Festival. If eight schools participate in any Regional Drama Festival, three plays will advance from that Regional Festival to the State Drama Festival. No more than eight schools shall make up a Regional Festival. If more than 24 schools enter the Regional Festival, a fourth Regional Festival will be created.

Section B18.3

Material used may be a one-act play, a cutting from a longer play, or an original play. Cutting of musicals may be used, but singing cannot exceed a combined time of 5 minutes. The play must have a minimum of three characters. Characters may not be added or cut from published plays that would be in violation of copyright regulations except with written permission by the publisher and/or author. The play which wins first place in the State Tournament may not be used the following year. Each school is responsible for any royalty obligations.

Section B18.4

The playing time shall be not more than 60 minutes total, which includes all setup and strike time. There is no minimum time for an entry.

Section B18.5

A total of 60 minutes will be available to each play for technical rehearsal, including setting the stage, and striking the stage. The time may be used at the discretion of each school, but may not exceed 60 minutes total and may be influence the judge's ranking.

Section B18.6

The host school shall supply a basic lighting plot with a minimum of three general lighting areas and one follow spot. It is suggested that participating schools supply a light, sound, and curtain cue sheet. The host school shall supply a simple set adaptable to the needs of the plays. All hand properties, make-up, and costumes shall be provided by the school presenting the play.

Section B18.7

Any play that is more than one minute under the minimum or one minute over the maximum in extra playing or technical time is not eligible to receive first place on any individual judge's ballot. This will not affect the selection to the All-State Cast.

Section B18.8

- a. The regional and state judging shall be the ranking system as used in all Pennsylvania High School Speech League events.
- b. The judges are to be selected by the Regional Coordinators for regional competition, and by the Executive Director for State competition. A panel of three judges must be used at the Regional competition. Regional judges will be paid $10.00 per play. A panel of five judges must be used at the State competition.
- c. Tiebreakers for Regional and State Drama Competition shall reflect the tiebreakers for the interpretation events at the State competition (Example – Judges preference – Reciprocals).

Section B18.9

The Director of the contest play will not be allowed backstage during setup, performance, and strike. The Director is permitted in the dressing rooms.

Section B18.10a

Awards at the State Festival: the top three pieces receive plaques (Example: first place, second place, and third place); the remaining schools receive “State Finalist” plaques.

Section B18.10b

Competing schools at State competition will be notified if they are “State Placing Teams” or “State Finalists”. All Ranks and Awards will be announced and the all teams will be recognized at the Spring PHSSL State Competition during the Awards Ceremony.

Section B18.11

Regional Registration will now be sent to the State Office, and after all registrations are received, individual schools will be assigned to a regional competition. Geographic location and equalization of regional competition will be the prime factors in assigning schools. There will be three regions. No more than eight schools can be assigned to a region. If needed, additional region(s) will be created. The registration fee for the regional drama festival shall not exceed $50.00.

Section B18.12

All schools participating in Regional Drama will receive 4 points for participation.
All schools participating in State Drama will receive 4 points for participation.

Section B18.13

The Drama Handbook shall be considered a part of the Constitution.

Festival and Contest Suggestions

The Regional Drama Coordinator will schedule its Drama Festival whenever it is convenient for that particular Region, and at any time prior to the deadline set by the League Office. Each member school is permitted to enter one or two plays in a Regional Festival. Each Region shall qualify two plays to the State Festival. Where possible, area colleges might be willing to help with the Regional Festival in providing facilities and judges. A member of the Executive Board will be appointed as liaison to each of the Regional Drama Festivals.

The following suggestions are given for the Regional Coordinator and host schools in planning for the Regional, and State Festival.

1. The Regional Drama Coordinator must be active in secondary school drama and/or knowledgeable in drama.
2. All deadline dates for the Regional and State Festivals will be enforced.
3. The schedule for the performances of the plays can be by an impartial drawing for position; or the plays may be scheduled to facilitate staging and timing by the Regional Coordinator (Regional) and the Executive Director (State).
4. The host school or Coordinator will provide a competent stage crew. The participating school may provide its own trained stage crew, if acceptable with host and the school's regulations.
5. The host school shall provide competent light and sound technicians who will receive cues from the competing high school student stage managers.
6. The host shall provide a timekeeper and such house personnel as necessary to insure a smooth running performance.
7. The Coordinator will be responsible for sending all necessary information and reports to the Executive Director immediately at the close of the event.

It is the responsibility of the Coordinator in charge to secure competent judges. JQP's must be completed for the Drama judges for all levels of competition. The judging will be by a panel of judges. Regional judges will be paid $10.00 per play. The following committees can function to arrange for the planning and presentations of Drama events:

Regional Festival: Director of the host school, Regional Coordinator as appointed by the Executive Director, and Chairperson of the participating districts

State Festival: Executive Director, Executive Committee, and the Regional Directors

NOTE: PHSSL Membership Form MUST be completed and dues paid prior to Drama Festival.

Drama Festival Judge's Evaluation Form

Name or Number of School _____

Play _____ Author _____

The acting, directing and technical aspects of production should all be considered as a whole in the critic's evaluation. Since schools are required to keep the amount of scenery to a minimum, the critic is to evaluate the technical aspects of the play in terms of performer's adaption to and use of stage, lighting, and furniture available. Choice of play should not be a criterion in your ranking; rather, the critic should evaluate how well the play chosen was presented. Critics are necessarily allowed some leeway in appraising the performances. We wish the following factors considered as basic, however:

1. Characterization and Interpretation – Was there a complete bodily and mental recreation of characters by the actors? Were their reactions to other actors correct and effective? Were the interpretations of the roles believable? Was there sufficient motivation, action, and reaction?
2. Voice and Diction – Could you hear the actors distinctly? Was there variety of rate and inflection? Was pronunciation and articulation properly done and in keeping with the play?
3. Plot Development – Was the production unified? If a cutting, was it a complete and understandable unit? Did ensemble carry the situation to a suitable climax? Did the characterizations and action advance the plot?
4. Direction – Were the roles appropriately cast? Was the theme or main idea of the play brought out? Was there evidence of effectiveness of the director's influence over mechanics of stage business, balance, proportion, emphasis, placing, grouping, and movement of the players on stage and in creation of mood? Were the time limits observed?
5. Tempo – Was the pace in keeping with the general idea of the play? Was there smoothness, variety, and appropriateness in the movement of the play?
6. Make-Up and Costumes – Although no extra credit should allowed for unusual or elaborate costuming or make-up, were these reasonably convincing and appropriate for the creation of the illusion?
7. Total Effectiveness – What was the total impression of the production upon you, the critic?
8. Critique – Please continue your comments on the back.

Synopsis of Problem Areas and Resolutions for 2019-2020

PROBLEM AREA I: ARMS SALES

Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially reduce Direct Commercial Sales and/or Foreign Military Sales of arms from the United States.

In the movie Iron Man, upon his triumphant return to the United States, arms dealer Tony Stark reflects upon the world his products helped shape:

"I saw young Americans killed by the very weapons I created to defend them and protect them. And I saw that I had become part of a system that is comfortable with zero-accountability...I had my eyes opened. I came to realize that I had more to offer this world than just making things that blow up. And that is why, effective immediately, I am shutting down the weapons manufacturing division of Stark Industries."

Just as Tony Stark faced his day of reckoning, the United States is on the verge of facing a similar fate. President Trump is actively increasing the number of arms contracts offered and authorized by the United States. One must ask whether arms sales make us safer and strengthen our economy, or create blowback which increases terrorism or fuels conflicts in a variety of regions across the globe. Direct Commercial Sales affirmatives would limit the number or type of sales by American companies to foreign militaries. These affirmatives could prohibit the sale of drone technology, reduce small arms sold to nations like Saudi Arabia which are used to perpetrate human rights abuses, or strengthen export controls to prevent future resale of our technology. Foreign Military Sales affirmatives would reduce sales by the Departments of State or Defense to foreign militaries. These affirmatives could prohibit sales of F-35s to Israel which are used for bombing raids, prevent Japanese acquisition of Tomahawk missiles which would provoke China or North Korea, or prevent sales to Qatar which may give US munitions to terrorist organizations. Affirmatives addressing either type of sales could net advantages such as: Terrorism, proliferation, human rights credibility, hegemony, and increasing stability in the world's most volatile regions. Negative teams will have access to alliance-based disadvantages highlighting the need for arms sales to create commonly equipped militaries, defending arms sales as a credible deterrent to prevent conflicts, acknowledging the economic impact of reducing the role of one of the largest economic sectors, or arguing countries like Russia or China would fill in and negate solvency. The only constant element of President Trump's foreign policy is to increase arms sold by the United States, which makes the literature base broad and accessible, we have not embraced the opportunity to debate arms sales since 1983, and the time to rekindle this debate is now.

PROBLEM AREA II: INDIA

Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially increase its development and/or military assistance to the Republic of India.

India has the second largest population in the world yet has never been the primary focus of a policy debate resolution. India is a country on the cusp of becoming a global power, but is held back by its growing population and regional competitors. India's densely packed urban populations face environmental problems, and resource distribution challenges the nation. The rural areas struggle with poverty, famine, and lack of access to education, health care, and the internet. While gaining military strength, India faces many challenges: terrorist groups, sabre rattling with Pakistan, competition with China, and cybersecurity. Development and/or military assistance could ameliorate these problems by increasing poverty aid, sharing clean energy expertise, expanding access to health care services, engaging in joint military training exercises, or sharing counter-terrorism intelligence. Negative counterplan strategies could include alternative modes of financing and disadvantages to the topic mechanism (Dutch Disease, Rent-Seeking). Military assistance would provide support to India but also creates negative ground about encroaching on spheres of influence and the consequences of international military engagements. Prime Minister Modi seems willing to work with President Trump, but it is yet to be seen how America will approach the relationship. Affirmatives would be forced to clash with the current foreign policy ideology of “America First”, which magnifies links to disadvantages about political flip-flops. Additionally, India’s government must decide whether to deal with a controversial Trump administration ahead of their own important elections. Critical arguments about the efficacy of development assistance create important debates regarding America’s role in the world, and how we should approach international engagement. Military assistance creates debates over the United States military-industrial-complex that have been a historically rich area of investigation.

PROBLEM AREA III: MIDDLE EAST

Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially increase its constructive engagement with one or more of the following: Iran, Saudi Arabia, Syria.

While the Middle East is comprised of a number of countries, it is important that we limit the scope to these three. Saudi Arabia, an ally in name, is participating in the destabilization of Yemen, has had a dubious record regarding terrorism within its borders, and a shameful record on women’s rights issues. But a strong relationship with Saudi Arabia may also be the key to peace in the Middle East. Iran seems to be inviting conflict by seeking to expand its sphere of influence: Engagement could bring stability to the region and further the US’s goals of helping Iranians, but affirmatives will have to accept working with a government that is openly hostile to US power. Syria is in the midst of a civil war that threatens great power conflict. Previous regimes have chosen to work with local opposition groups rather than Al Assad’s government and the current regime seems to have no clear policy regarding how it wants to engage with this critical nation. Affirmatives can argue that stabilizing Syria is key to stopping the refugee crisis, human rights abuses, and ISIS. While engaging these nations may solve major issues, there are plenty of detractors from working with these three nations. From Bashar Al Assaad's human rights violations, Iran's hegemonic encroachment in the Middle East and Saudi Arabia's tendency to overlook terrorism within its borders, these nations offer excellent case debate about whether to engage or shun. Possible affirmative cases include: protecting women’s rights in one or more of the countries, pursuing diplomatic solutions to conflicts, or attempting to engage economically. Negative can focus on the problems associated with the United States attempting to help countries in the Middle East. Negatives also have a wealth of process CPs, relations DAs, and kritikal arguments to challenge the standing of any affirmative. This topic would give novice debaters the ability to correct misconceptions about the region while also giving them the opportunity to learn the activity on an easily accessible topic. While we have debated these countries as impact scenarios on other resolutions, we haven’t approached this region as a topic area.

PROBLEM AREA IV: NUCLEAR STRATEGY

Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially change its nuclear weapons strategy.

The debate over America's nuclear weapons strategy is essential to our military and diplomatic relations throughout the world. This topic engages debaters on the timely question of: What should our nuclear weapons strategy be? President Trump expresses a strong preference for relying more heavily on the nuclear elements of our deterrent posture. His administration wastes no time in issuing a new Nuclear Posture Review that radically differs from his predecessors. Media coverage of Iran, North Korea, and other countries showcase the wide interests and fears in a changing nuclear climate.

On the affirmative, debaters will find a variety of cases ranging from negotiating international nuclear arms control, declaring no first use, reducing the U.S. arsenal, reducing U.S. alert status, clarifying deterrence posture regarding non-nuclear attacks, clarifying U.S. deterrence/use posture in different regions such as Asia or the Middle East, or increasing U.S. commitment to nuclear treaties. "Change" is a word that has been absent from policy resolutions for over 20 years mostly because of the possibility of creating unlimited, bidirectional topics. The relative narrowness of the content area of this topic, focused on an established nuclear posture review, limits the affirmative to changing course from the existing strategy.

On the negative, debaters will find a variety of strategies from which to engage the affirmative and will enjoy core topic arguments that cover all facets of the topic. Specific disadvantages like deterrence and allied proliferation will cover every affirmative regardless of their direction and create vibrant link debates based on the literature on both sides. Specific counterplans would include consultation, condition/quid pro quo, doing a smaller change than the affirmative, excluding components of the strategy change, creating exceptions to the change, actions unrelated to changing the existing nuclear strategy, and taking actions outside the normal means. Specific critical arguments surrounding international relations, the evolution of nuclear weapons (testing, exclusion, securitization, etc.) and other critical approaches will provide plenty of negative approaches.

PROBLEM AREA V: TREATIES

Resolved: The United States federal government should ratify or accede to, and implement, one or more of the following: Paris Agreement under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, Trans-Pacific Partnership, United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea.

In June 2018, the United States withdrew from the United Nations Human Rights Council to join Eritrea, Iran, and North Korea as the only nations who no longer participate in any of its meetings. This action reduced the credibility of the United States as an arbiter of international law. Since 1995, the US has ratified only ten treaties. Ratification of one or more of the treaties in this topic is widely regarded as a prerequisite towards regaining its standing as a defender of international law. Affirmatives on the topic could advocate unconditional ratification of any of the listed treaties or could alternatively advocate ratification with reservations excepting individual provisions. Paris Agreement affirmatives will focus on how the United States can address climate change at the national level. Implementation of the Paris Agreement could include affirmatives which focus on renewable portfolio standards, carbon taxes, cap-and-trade systems or favorable frameworks to increase alternative energy development. Rome Statute affirmatives could focus on why the US should assist in choosing judges and prosecutors, how the ICC could limit drone strikes or other forms of unilateral military action, or how US adherence to the ICC will effectively fight human rights violations. Trans-Pacific Partnership affirmatives could focus on the necessity of the Asia-Pivot strategy, the benefits of free trade on agriculture and alliances, and the US economy. Finally, Law of the Sea affirmatives could focus on the benefits of freedom of navigation, security in the arctic, piracy, or conservation of our oceans. While there are only four treaties included in the topic, there are multiple ways to ratify (or accede to) and implement each one. Those options broaden what might seem a narrow topic. Affirmative cases could leverage the advantages specific to each treaty, and also hold critical and policy-based objections to American exceptionalism and unilateral action. A focused list of treaties allows negatives to develop a variety of strategies against each one to allow rigorous case debates. Counterplan options could include alternate actors and solvency mechanisms as well as reservations against particular provisions of the treaty. There is rich disadvantage ground in the areas of international relations, economic and political leadership, environmental impacts, and human rights. Critical positions arise from issues of American imperialism, exporting capitalist values, flaws in international law and securitization of the environment.

MAILING LABELS AVAILABLE

A list of PHSSL member schools is available on mailing labels. The complete set (14 Districts across the state) can be purchased for $5.00. List of individual districts will sell for $1.00 per district. Many schools will find this service helpful for mailing out information on various tournaments, programs, etc.

The 2017-2018 labels are available now; the 2018-2019 labels will be available after February 1, 2019. Labels can be ordered from the PHSSL State Office. Payment must accompany order.

REMINDER

Speeches and readings for PHSSL tournaments may not have been used in competition by the student prior to the current academic year.

DISTRICT WORKSHOPS

Each year PHSSL offers to conduct workshops in the various districts of our state. These are held free of charge to participating schools in that district. It is hoped that each district of the Speech League will conduct a least one workshop each year so that the schools in that district, especially the newer schools, will learn about the approaches and fundamentals of these speech activities.

The PHSSL budget allocates $50 per District for workshops and clinics.

If you would like to conduct a workshop in your district, contact your District Chairperson and request such a workshop.

PENNSYLVANIA HIGH SCHOOL SPEECH LEAGUE

Insurance Statement

To participate in the PHSSL State Tournament and/or Drama Festival, it is required that participating schools file a Certificate of Insurance listing Bloomsburg University as additional insured.

To help simplify matters, below is a printed memorandum which you can send to your school's Business Manager. He/she and/or your school's insurance carrier should be familiar with the Certificate of Insurance. One annual filing will take care of the entire year.

RE: Insurance Statement

Organizations or groups who participate in the PHSSL State Tournament and Drama Festival are required to provide a Certificate of Insurance listing Bloomsburg University as "An Additional Insured." The policy must show that the organization or group is insured for $1,000,000 total (per incident) for bodily injury and property damage liability during the time in which the facilities are being utilized.

The insurance certificate must be received and approved by Bloomsburg University. The certificate should be mailed to:

Jodi Fetterolf
State Secretary
Pennsylvania High School Speech League
Bloomsburg University
400 E. 2nd St
213 Old Science
Bloomsburg, PA 17815

A confirmation of participants or facilities cannot be provided until the Certificate of Insurance is approved by the University.

The Certificate is needed for either or both of the state championships in Drama (December/January) and Forensics (March/April).
